

89 Ajello, Sicily (Italy) Nero d'Avola 'Majus' 2006

Mouth-filling, juicy, plummy fruit is the calling card for this simple but delicious expression of Sicily's most important red grape. The fruit is gorgeous, the tannins fine and the balance exceptional. Hints of licorice and spice only add to the pleasure. Even at full price it's a steal. -Robert Whitley

